New England Board of Higher Education
Regional Student Program (RSP), Tuition Break
2021-22 Annual Report
Executive Summary

In its 64th year of enrollment, the New England Board of Higher Education's Tuition Break, the Regional Student Program (RSP), continued to enhance access and affordability for residents of the six New England states while helping to support enrollment at the region's public colleges and universities.

The 9,101 students enrolled in programs offered through the RSP in fall 2021 saved an estimated total of $64.8 million on their annual tuition bills. A full-time student saved an average of $8,600.

Since the first year of enrollment in 1957, the RSP has provided New England students and families savings on more than 342,000 annual tuition bills, with total savings in the billions of dollars.

The RSP helps students afford to enroll in their academic program of choice at out-of-state public colleges and universities. Eligible students pay significantly lower than the regular out-of-state rate when they enroll in programs offered through the RSP by out-of-state public colleges and universities within the six-state region.

The region's public colleges and universities received an estimated $150 million in tuition and fee revenue from the RSP students enrolled at their campuses in 2021-22.

In terms of enrollment, changes in RSP enrollment compared favorably against changes in overall enrollment. RSP enrollment in fall 2021 at the public four-year campuses was level with the previous fall and decreased 1.7% at the two-year campuses. By contrast, public four-year enrollment nationally decreased by 3.0% and public two-year enrollment by 3.4%, according to the National Student Clearinghouse's (NSC) January 2022 report, Current Term Enrollment Estimates, Fall 2021.

Nationally, total enrollment at public and independent higher education institutions (HEIs) declined by 2.7% in fall 2021, following a 2.5% decrease in fall 2020, according to the NSC report. Total RSP enrollment in fall 2021 decreased by only 0.4%, and RSP enrollment increased at half of the participating institutions.

NEBHE established the RSP in 1957-58 to fulfill the purposes of the congressionally authorized New England Higher Education Compact—expanding educational opportunities for New England residents and sharing higher education resources. The RSP has been increasingly branded as the Tuition Break.

Key benefits of the RSP are:

- Significant savings on out-of-state tuition for eligible residents
- Access to hundreds of academic programs out-of-state, many in specialized and high-demand fields
- An enrollment strategy for participating campuses to attract and retain out-of-state New England students
- Resource sharing for the region's public higher education systems, helping to reduce the need to duplicate programs offered in nearby states

More than 2,200 program offerings

The participating colleges and universities allow eligibility for a wide array of degree programs, in all areas of study, including programs not offered by public HEIs in the students' home-state. A significant number of Tuition Break programs are in specialized or high-demand career areas, such as bioengineering, homeland security, justice studies, environmental engineering, allied health, nursing, pharmacy, energy technology, advanced manufacturing technology, sustainability studies, wildlife ecology and zoology.

NEBHE engages the participating institutions in an annual review to approve programs. During the 2021 annual review, institutions approved more than 2,200 program offerings for 2022-23.

Examples of additional new programs approved for 2022-23 are:

New undergraduate offerings:

Climate Studies, Plymouth State University
Cybersecurity, University of New Hampshire
Off-Shore Wind Power Technology, Bristol CC
Photonics & Optical Engineering, Bridgewater State University
Veterinary Technology, University of Massachusetts Amherst

New graduate offerings:

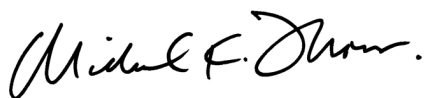

Bioinformatics (MS), University of New Hampshire
Human Rights, University of Connecticut
Medical Physics (MS), University of Rhode Island
Occupational Therapy (DOT), University of New Hampshire, University of Vermont
Regenerative Engineering (MS), University of Connecticut

Three options for eligibility

Participating institutions choose how they allow eligibility. The RSP Tuition Break policies provide three options:

1. Specialized Programs • Allows eligibility for any program that is not offered by a home-state public college or university. NEBHE conducts an annual review to determine eligibility in each state. This policy has been in effect since the beginning of the RSP.
2. Proximity Programs • Allows eligibility for students who live closer to an out-of-state college than an in-state college offering a particular program. This policy has been in effect since the late 1960s as an option for community colleges and since the late 1980s for four-year institutions.
3. Flexible Programs • Allows institutions to offer one or more of their programs to residents of the five other New England states (regardless of whether the program is offered in the home-state). This policy took effect as an option for participating four-year HEIs in fall 2019, following approval by the NEBHE board in 2018. The Flexible policy previously applied only to the community colleges, since 1971. View list of institutions allowing Flexible eligibility for 2022-23.

This report provides data on RSP Tuition Break enrollment and tuition revenue and savings for the 2021-22 academic year, as well as historical data. NEBHE thanks the campus officials who provided detailed fall 2021 enrollment information, as well as the campus representatives and administrators who oversee the ongoing participation of their institutions in Tuition Break.

Highlights of Connecticut's Participation in the Regional Student Program (RSP): 2021-22

The RSP provides savings on out-of-state tuition to Connecticut residents enrolled in approved degree programs at public campuses in the five other New England states and provides a reciprocal benefit to eligible New England residents enrolled at Connecticut's public higher education institutions (HEIs). Connecticut residents are eligible for more than 900 undergraduate and graduate degree programs through the RSP, also known as Tuition Break.

NOTES REGARDING DATA:

Tuition savings equals the discount on out-of-state tuition that Connecticut residents receive because of the RSP. Revenue figures represent the tuition paid by incoming RSP students. All tuition revenue and savings figures are estimates based on annual tuition rates and full-time equivalent (FTE) enrollment for the fall 2021 semester. Average annual tuition savings is based on full-time enrollment. Refer to Figures in this report for detailed breakdowns on enrollment and revenue by institution and state.

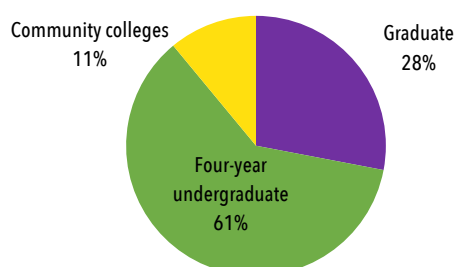

Highlights of Maine's Participation in the Regional Student Program (RSP): 2021-22

The RSP provides savings on out-of-state tuition to Maine residents enrolled in approved degree programs at public campuses in the five other New England states and provides a reciprocal benefit to eligible New England residents enrolled at Maine's public higher education institutions (HEIs). Maine residents are eligible for more than 1,200 undergraduate and graduate degree programs through the RSP, also known as Tuition Break.

Summary of 2021-22 Data for Regional Student Program (RSP) Tuition Break

RSP Tuition Savings and Revenue

- Students saved an estimated total of $64.8 million on their 2021-22 tuition bills while enrolled in academic programs offered through the RSP. A full-time student saved an average of $8,600.
- Participating institutions received an estimated $126.9 million in tuition revenue and $23.3 million in fee revenue from RSP students enrolled in 2021-22.

Highlights of RSP Enrollment by State: Fall 2021 vs Fall 2020

- Incoming RSP enrollment increased at the public colleges and universities in four states: Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts and New Hampshire.
- Outgoing RSP enrollment increased for residents of Maine, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont.

State	Incoming RSP Enrollment		Outgoing RSP Enrollment
	Headcount	% Annual Change	Headcount	% Annual Change
Connecticut	1,145	4.3%	1,565	-3.9%
Maine	1,176	3.3%	438	7.9%
Massachusetts	3,495	1.5%	3,187	-4.5%
New Hampshire	1,183	12.2%	2,238	2.1%
Rhode Island	1,611	-15.3%	1,144	2.8%
Vermont	491	-3.3%	529	13.8%

Comparison of RSP and Overall Enrollment: Fall 2021 vs Fall 2020

Total enrollment at public and independent higher education institutions (HEIs) declined by 2.7% overall nationally in Fall 2021, following a 2.5% decrease in Fall 2020, according to the National Student Clearinghouse's Jan. 2022 report, Current Term Enrollment Estimates, Fall 2021.

The NSC report found that in terms of enrollment changes in Fall 2021 at the public HEIs:

- Public four-year enrollment nationally decreased by 3.0%. Three New England states – Connecticut, New Hampshire and Vermont – saw decreases equal to or steeper than the national% decline.
- Public two-year enrollment nationally decreased by 3.4%. Four New England states – Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts and New Hampshire – saw decreases steeper than the national% decline.

By comparison, the annual enrollment change for the Regional Student Program (RSP) in Fall 2021 overall was more positive:

- Public four-year RSP enrollment overall was level with last year. Four states saw increases and two states saw decreases. Enrollment increases at the four-year HEIs are largely attributed to a new Flexible Programs policy option, which took effect in Fall 2019. Four-year undergraduate enrollment was at a record high in Fall 2020.
- Public two-year RSP enrollment overall decreased by 1.7%. Four states saw decreases and two states saw increases.

NOTES: The RSP tuition savings figures represent the discount on out-of-state tuition received by eligible residents. Average savings are weighted. Revenue figures represent the total tuition and estimated mandatory fees paid by RSP students to participating institutions. Net revenue equals the RSP surcharge above the in-state tuition rate. The revenue figures are calculated based on annual tuition rates, mandatory fees and FTE figures reported for the fall 2021 semester. The full-time equivalent (FTE) enrollments were calculated using a modified version of the U.S. Department of Education's methodology. Specifically, the FTE was determined by adding 40 percent of an institution's reported part-time enrollment to its reported full-time enrollment $[(\text{Part-time Enrollment} \times 0.4) + \text{Full-time Enrollment} = \text{FTE}]$. Total numbers may vary slightly due to rounding.

Fig. 2. RSP Tuition and Fee Revenue and Enrollment by Institution: 2021-22

During the 2021-22 academic year, New England public colleges and universities received an estimated $127 million in tuition revenue and $23 million in fee revenue from 9,101 students enrolled under the RSP.

NOTE: The following institutions did not report any enrollment under the RSP in Fall 2021: Connecticut: Capital, Housatonic, Naugatuck Valley and Norwalk community colleges; Maine: Washington County Community College; University of Maine at Fort Kent and University of Maine at Presque Isle are excluded because of institutional policies allowing all out-of-state students to pay reduced tuition, effective starting Fall 2015; Massachusetts: Massasoit Community College.

The revenue figures are calculated based on annual tuition rates, estimated mandatory fees and FTE figures reported for the Fall 2021 semester. The full-time equivalent (FTE) enrollments were calculated using a modified version of the U.S. Department of Education's methodology. Specifically, the FTE was determined by adding 40 percent of an institution's reported part-time enrollment to its reported full-time enrollment $[(\text{Part-time Enrollment} \times 0.4) + \text{Full-time Enrollment} = \text{FTE}]$. Total numbers may vary slightly due to rounding.

NOTES: The following institutions did not report any enrollment under the RSP in Fall 2021: Connecticut: Capital, Housatonic, Naugatuck Valley and Norwalk community colleges; Maine: Washington County Community College; University of Maine at Fort Kent and University of Maine at Presque Isle are excluded because of institutional policies allowing all out-of-state students to pay reduced tuition, effective starting Fall 2015; Massachusetts: Massasoit Community College.

Fig. 10. RSP 20-Year Enrollment Trend by Institution Type: Fall 2002 through Fall 2021

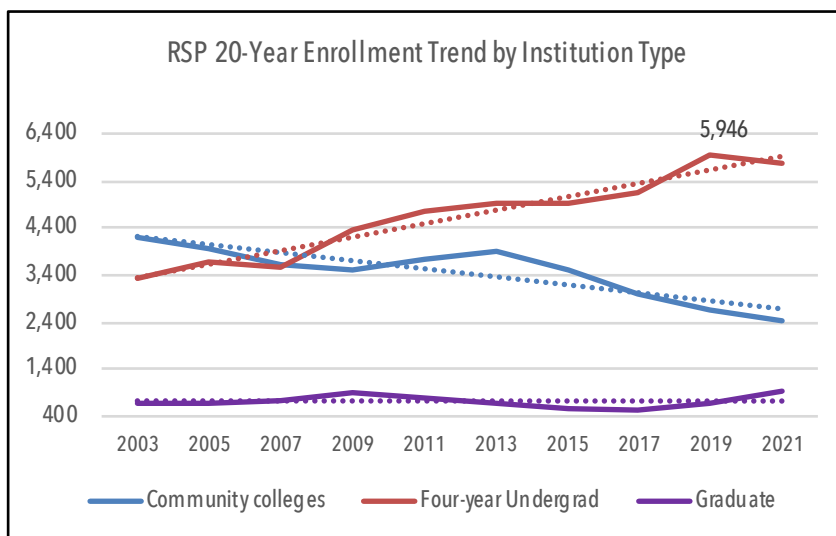

A total of 9,101 students were enrolled through the Regional Student Program (RSP) in academic year 2021-22, the 64th year of enrollment. Total enrollment decreased slightly in Fall 2020 (-1.2%) and Fall 2021 (-0.4%), after a significant increase in 2019 (+13.5%).

Four-year undergraduate enrollment reached a record high in Fall 2019 (5,946). The increase was largely attributed to the Flexible Programs policy which took effect that year as an additional option for the participating four-year institutions.

RSP enrollment by sector over 20 years:

- Four-year undergraduate enrollment (63% of total enrollment) saw the most significant increase.
- Graduate enrollment (10% of total) increased moderately.
- Community college enrollment (27% of total) decreased overall.

NOTES: The following institutions did not report any enrollment under the RSP in Fall 2021:

Connecticut: Capital, Housatonic, Naugatuck Valley and Norwalk community colleges;

Maine: Washington County Community College; University of Maine at Fort Kent and University of Maine at Presque Isle are excluded because of institutional policies allowing all out-of-state students to pay reduced tuition, effective starting Fall 2015;

Massachusetts: Massasoit Community College.
